Never before has music sounded so real, so lifelike! There’s no annoying distortion because all the playing surface is within the record’s distortion-free “quality zone.” Non-breakable plastic records virtually do away with surface-noise, too.

Don't you think Perry Como could act a little more formal on his television show?
Chicago, III. VINCENT STRAZZABOSCO

Ed. Note: Like Ed Sullivan, perhaps?

Poor Arthur Godfrey! I bet he doesn’t even wear a hat. They don’t make them that size!
Chicago, Ill. MRS. E. A. SMITH

I would like to express our appreciation for TV Forecast. We could not get along without it.
Evanston, Ill. MRS. JOSIAH S. BERRY

The reasons I have for selecting Milton Berle’s program as the worst program of the year are (1) He is always in the picture, no matter what the act (2) He has the same guest stars too often, such as Martha Raye (3) If he would just do his piece and disappear until the end, he'd have the same old show he started with . . . Let him be just Milton Berle.
Chicago, Ill. MARY BALGER

I hope you have time to read this. If you don’t, just throw it away, because it probably isn’t important anyway. I voted for Jerry Lester as my favorite comedian, but Sid Caesar and Milton Berle (without Martha Raye) are very good . . . Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis are great, too. I hope they stay on TV for years to come.
Hammond, Ind. JIM MAROC

In a recent issue of TV Forecast I read that a Miss Ellen McCabe thought Milton Berle a ham. He loves children, and he acts the way he does to show his affection for children. I am 13 and would not miss his TV program for anything.
Chicago, III. JOYCE RONNBERG

Glad to see Harold Turner on TV.
Worth, Ill. MRS. R. A. MEYER

We think the Jack Carter show stinks.
Oak Lawn, Ill. MRS. H. J. KOLLPINTER

NEXT WEEK  "The Patsy Lee You Rarely See"

Go backstage with our Inquiring Reporter who enjoys a chat with Patsy Lee, WENR-TV's vivacious singer. It appears in next week's TV Forecast on sale at leading newstands each Friday.

ON THE COVER: Sue Topping and Frank Sweeney, "Foto Test" personalities, wish their WGN-TV viewers Valentine greetings. They can be seen Mondays thru Fridays on channel 9.
NEW YORK—Most controversial subject in Television circles is Arthur Godfrey’s assignment to visit Gen. Eisenhower and report to the people on conditions of the world. Anti-Arturo critics ask what qualifications a ukulele player has. Pro-Godfrey fans reply: What has the U. N. done to unify American feelings. And so it goes. There’s no argument over Shaye Cogan, aye-some cutie on the Vaughn Monroe show. We’ve talked about her before. Now you’ll have the chance to see her talent in the two movies she’s making with Abbott and Costello. One of the first cases of a TV star getting a Hollywood break, rather than the other way around.

Elsa Maxwell won’t have her own show, as others have predicted. The famed party_thrower prefers to guest-star on other programs. Chicagoan Hal Block, setting Manhattan afire with his gags on “What’s My Line?”, claims color TV is a problem. “I photograph plaid,” Block cracked. Biggest vitamin fiend: Bert Lahr, always seen chewing ’em. Richard de Rochemont, producer of the March of Time series, makes his entry the 15th with a new series “through the years” via ABC-TV. “They won’t tire of me,” predicts Paul Whiteman. “I just keep out of the picture as much as possible.” And that’s his advice to anyone who wants to survive television.

Gertrude Berg actually cooks the real food used on the “Goldberg” telecasts. When asked what his favorite motion picture role was, Bill “Hop-along” Boyd replied “Two Arabian Nights.” Kay Westfall of WENR-TV’s 120-minute opus, will return Feb. 12 from her vacation in Daytona, her first in many years. Victor Borge swears it’s true. He recalls the time his father found him sitting in front of a roaring fire in the living room and scolded him. Why? “Because, you see, we had no fireplace!” Frank “Lights Out” Gallop was once Milton Berle’s straight man. Chief clown Ed McMahon was once a Tunnel of Love Barker at a Massachusetts amusement park. Hank Ladd says Faye Emerson wears those low cut gowns because Skitch won’t buy her enough material to make the tops!

At home, John Cameron Swayze is called “Tuffy” by Mrs. S. Most persistent rumor: Marlene Dietrich turned down $10,000 to appear on the Colgate Comedy Hour. Have you seen those match books carrying the legend “Help stamp out TV”? Who else but a Hollywood hot-head would have designed those? Those dark glasses worn by Betty Ann Grove are not to hide the NBC singer. Just a bad case of conjunctivitis, or pink eye. Vinni De Campo, now seen on the Kate Smith hour, got his first big-time break from Harry James.

My chief talent scout picks Norma Ransom this week. Chicagoans first saw her as Debbie O’Toole on the Tinker O’Toole show. Now Norma is with the city’s Actors Company and her recent performance in “Portrait of a Madonna” won applause from Tennesee Williams while he was a guest here.

It could only happen in New York dept.: some big TV shows have a half-empty studio audience. They have trouble giving ducats away, while other shows are so crowded tickets are being sold by scalpers.
Once Upon a Tune

Chicago Stars Spark
WGN- TV Musical

If some of the faces on “Once Upon a Tune” seem familiar to you it’s because at least two members of the cast of this enchanting WGN-TV musical, staged out of New York thru the DuMont network facilities, are Chicagoans that are climbing to fame via television.

Holly is one of the busiest girls in show business, currently co-starring with Hanna and also understudying Anne Jeffreys in “Kiss Me Kate.” When Mary Martin left the Broadway version of “One Touch of Venus,” Holly stepped in and her performance rated understudy roles for Betty Compton in “On the Town,” Nanette Fabray in “Bloomer Girl” and later “Love Life.” Each time Holly later replaced the star.

Phil Hanna, in addition to answering a deluge of Great Lakes fan mail from Chicago and suburban admirers, is one of the major reasons “Once Upon a Tune” will prove the soundness of a musical stock company for television. His previous stage and movie career includes a starring role in the London company production of “Frigadoon” and parts in the following Hollywood movies, “Without Love,” “Anchors Aweigh,” “Keep Your Powder Dry” and “This Man’s Love.”

Satire and parody are the keynotes of “Once Upon a Tune,” and experimentation has proved that even such innocent classics as “Alice In Wonderland” and “Beauty and the Beast” lend themselves ideally to the satirical format of the show. Relaxation is stressed, and while production plays an important part from the visual standpoint, “extravaganzas” are being studiously avoided.

Original music, as well as already-published tunes, is used on the show every week. The original scores are composed by Coleman Dowell.

Ed Holmes, one of the character actors of the cast, began his career when he won second place on Major Bowes’ radio show and toured the country as a Bowes-unit “Personality Boy”. He has also appeared in “Sleeping City” for Universal-International and RKO’s “Tattoo Stranger.”

Gordon Dilworth made two cross-country concert tours while still studying music on a graduate fellowship at Juilliard. He has been in a number of Broadway shows including “Babes in Arms,” “Sunny River,” “Helen Goes to Troy,” “The Merry Widow,” and “The Medium and the Telephone.”

Sondra “Peanuts” Lee, who is one of the featured dancers of the cast, has danced in “High Button Shoes” and “Billion Dollar Baby.” Her partner is Sammy Steen, who has appeared on a number of television shows. They excel in dancing interpretations of the lyrics of songs in pantomime.

Reggie Beane, top notch piano virtuoso, has accompanied Ethel Waters in many of her stage engagements and vaudeville appearances as well as her movie work. He has played stage roles in “Wesley” and “Time of Your Life,” and the repetition of his original role in the film version of that play.

The other members of the cast include Martin Sameth, Tyre Glenn, George Mele, the dance team of Roberto and Alicia, plus new-comers Diane Courtney and comedienne Charlotte Rae.

An Editorial

Only last week we announced "Walt's Workshop" one of the winners in our annual Awards Poll. The readers of Chicagoland voted this NBC show their favorite in the How To Do It category, which wasn't much of a surprise to many educators who have been closely watching Walt Durbahn.

Maybe this program will never have the Pulse rating enjoyed by Milton Berle or Arthur Godfrey, but our city should be proud of programs like it because of the important role they are playing in helping to stamp out juvenile delinquency.

ABOVE: Walt helps two Scouts seeking home repair merit badges. He showed them how to set in a pane of glass, repair a flat iron cord and sharpen a knife. "Walt's Workshop" is sponsored by Hines, and is seen Fridays on channel 5.

An educator himself, Walt Durbahn is pioneering in the dual role of a teacher and entertainer. His sole purpose? To get people, especially young people, interested in using their hands to make things.

Once they become interested, they no longer are problems. They're busy, building, repairing, designing—becoming better citizens, more valuable to their community.

Whenever some crank points to TV and asks what it is doing to improve our life, point to shows like this one. If you have a scout troop or boys club, let them watch the telecasts. Get a receiver for their club rooms. It will pay dividends.

We'll take a firm stand on the opinion that TV can curb delinquency.
THE National Television Review Board this month again released a supplementary list of video programs recommended for Chicagoland viewers. The board, composed of prominent citizens from all walks of life, meets regularly to rate existing fare. Their reports are made available to schools, churches, organizations and publications throughout America.

FOR THE FAMILY

Chicago Calendar, with Jack Brickhouse and Bernie Sellers, WGN-TV. Open House, with Frankie Masters, also WGN-TV. Pulitzer Prize Playhouse, Studs Place and Courtesy Hour, all on WENR-TV; Mama on WBKB.

FOR THE CHILDREN

Sandy Strong, WENR-TV.

FOR ADULTS

Ralph Bellamy in Man Against Crime, WBKB; Broadway Open House, with Jerry Lester, WNBQ; and Penthouse Party, Betty Furness, WENR-TV.

Teen-age members of the board’s junior panel were in agreement with the above findings. Many made strong comment on such programs as Broadway Open House, finding it “a bit objectionable in parts.” A number also found fault with the increased number of killings shown on TV, such as in Man Against Crime.

While Chicagoans are taking TV in stride, some citizens of Detroit are favoring governmental controls to “cease production of objectionable features.” They are asking their city council to appeal to the Federal Communications Commission to “control this evil” when sponsors fail.

The Detroit group, apparently unaware of the blow they seek against free enterprise and committees like the National Television Review Board, feel that it is the government’s duty to regulate the video industry.

“Some progress,” the Detroit group further argued, “include acts, performances and pictures of shady, suggestive and objectionable characters . . . they glorify murders, robbers and burlesque performances.”

A spokesman of the National Television Review Board here in Chicago agreed that Detroit citizens were right in wanting to improve programming but argued it should be done through private channels, such as appeals to stations, sponsors and advertising agencies, in a volunteer fashion.

Members of the board not shown in the photo include George Jennings, Jesse Owens, David Balkin, Samuel A. Culbertson II, Rabbi Louis L. Mann, Dr. Preston Bradley, Mrs. Clifton Utley, and Mrs. Byron Harvey.

Nobody Here But Us Kids!

By UNCLE HERBIE

Boy! Did I have a wonderful time today! Just for the fun of it I went down to one of the television studios and watched a show being televised. I had no idea that so much went into the show and you’d be amazed at the number of people connected with it. Just think, not only do you see the actors and actresses but you also see the cameras and the boom mike and the lights and all the things that are needed to bring you your favorite shows.

You know I had a funny experience with the Boom Mike. That’s the microphone that you and I, as viewers, cannot see. It is high up and a little man sits on a platform connected to the mike and swings it to any point in the studio. Well, the boom mike man was just about ready to turn the mike on when he said “come on let’s get moving” and believe it or not that mike just turned around and said to the little man, “now you wait a minute—you’ve got my wires twisted and I’m not going to move until you fix them.”

Well, now I imagine this was the first time any microphone talked back to anybody. You know people usually talk to the microphone. This little man was so amazed he just didn’t know what to do. He just sat there until he heard the mike say “hey, come on—we’re late for rehearsal. Fix my wires.” So the little man got down from the platform and unplugged the wires of the mike and straightened them out and then he plugged them in again.

Well, he just stood there and said to the mike “how’s that?”. But, there was no answer! I bet that was the first time anybody ever heard a mike talk back to someone.

This week’s contest: The best letter on “why I’d like to visit a TV studio” will win $1. Just address it to Uncle Herbie, c/o TV Forecast, 185 N. Wabash, Chicago 1. Second place winner will receive 50 cents; 3rd and 4th place winners each 25 cents.

Is Chicago TV Destined to Doom?

By JACK MABLEY

How long do you think the Chicago style of television is going to exist? That is the type of show exemplified by Garroway, by Kukla, Fran and Ollie, by Studs' Place, and by the Ransom Sherman show.

Sherman already has been scuttled by the network because it failed to find a sponsor for him. It's my personal hunch that the whole Garroway crew will move to New York, probably next fall, and certainly before another year has passed.

The Garroway style is founded on hunger, and the Garroway people are making noises that sound as if they'd like to have some money to throw around and show the New York boys how to put on a production.

They're a little weary of substituting ingenuity for money, and they can't be blamed too much. You can carry the idea too far. We might also bear in mind that Garroway, Producer Ted Mills, and some others in the show are from New York.

We have detected no signs that Burr Tillstrom wants to desert Chicago. He enjoys visiting New York so much he probably wouldn't want to give it up by moving there.

Saturday Square, which you may remember from last summer, was a truly fine variety program, but it was swept out in favor of the pure New York Jack Carter show.

The network headquarters are in New York, and there is a feeling in Chicago TV circles that this city is treated as an orphan. Whether the feeling is justified or not, it explains why there is a certain defeatist attitude here.

When the TV network reaches the west coast next fall, Hollywood will begin feeding super colossal productions to the nationwide network. That will be still more competition for the relatively little network time.

There are definite indications that Chicago is going to go the same way in television that it did in radio—it will originate relatively few network shows.

That is bad for television. But television is completely commercial, and the big dough of New York and Hollywood is bound to beat down what Chicago has to offer—talent, taste, and ingenuity.

I hope you were as enthusiastic over the outcome of the TV Forecast Poll as I was. The people who voted really did themselves a big favor, because I think the television executives keep a close eye on these polls, and are influenced by them in planning their programs.

For instance, we join Cleveland—another city with superior tastes—in proclaiming Jerry Lester the comedy champ. This might help us get Lester on live here instead of on kinescope.

Incidentally, if you are a viewer who doesn't like Jerry, don't worry about his admirers, or yourself. He has a special brand of humor. It is very normal to enjoy it, and very normal not to. As I've said so many times, how dull it would be if we all enjoyed the same thing.

To get back to the poll, look at the fine network programs which won first place. Kukla, Fran and Ollie, Voice of Firestone, Studio One, Johns Hopkins Science Review, Pulitzer Prize Playhouse.

This poll tells what viewers like. None of us advocates filling the air with nothing but quiet, intelligent, tasteful shows, but you have to fight so hard for even a few that a poll like this is bound to be a great help.

"How many times do I have to tell you that that's only a picture of dog food?"

Out of Focus

by JIMMY BALKE

Fellows, if you want to stay out of the doghouse, don’t forget next Tuesday is Valentine’s Day. I’ve been in the doghouse so long now, my wife will probably give me a can of Red Heart! Last year she had a unique way of remembering me on Valentine’s Day. She prepared a special dinner and guess what I got? A heartburn.

My brother gave me a case of beer. He thought it was Ballentine’s Day! The ale he says! I gave my wife a great, big, heart-shaped five pound box. That’s all . . . just a five-pound box . . . this Valentine’s Day she can eat her heart out.

I had a special Valentine for the editor . . . but unfortunately he wasn’t in his office when it went off. Last Valentine’s Day he got a special hug from Jane Russell by telegraph, but was he disappointed. The Western Union boy cracked two of his ribs.

Isn’t that Bette Chapel a doll? She’s so sweet she keeps getting fan mail from lollipops. And here’s one “sucker” who could watch her all day!

Isn’t video wonderful during the long, cold winter? If the radiators in your home get cold, all you have to do is turn on Betty FURNESS.

CAPSULE REVIEWS

Have you seen the Toni Kemp Health Show? It’s a wonderful program for people who haven’t got a television set.

After hearing him sing, many Arthur Godfrey fans insist he should be in pictures, and I thoroughly agree . . . silent pictures.

Loyola On Skids—Jordan Rebuilds

By ED PAZDUR

The rampaging ramble of the Loyola Ramblers has been steadily diminishing since 1949 when they appeared in the finals of the National Invitational tournament at New York. It was a great year for the Haggertymen, defeating such stalwarts as CCNY, Kentucky, and Bradley. The climax came in a 48-49 thriller dropped to San Francisco for the national championship.

When Johnny Jordan succeeded Tom Haggerty as coach of Loyola's basketball squad last spring, he didn't have any illusions his first string team would burn up the collegiate cage circuit. Along with a spirited but inexperienced squad, the amiable Jordan has inherited an exceedingly ominous 28 game schedule — 23 of which rank nationally. "We'll always play the best and make no excuses for any games, win or lose. Road trips this year have given us the most trouble. Long road campaigns will cut into the efficiency of any ball club," commented Jordan.

This season he is compelled to rebuild Loyola's attack with inexperienced juniors and sophomores. Outside of Nick Kladis, who scored 150 points, the other three lettermen—Capt. Dick Collins, Don Hanrahan, and Joe Hutmacher—saw limited action. The trio bagged only 54 points between them in the few appearances they made in reserve roles.

Jordan, who coached Mount Carmel high school's senior and junior cagers to 28 different prep titles in 13 seasons, faces this tremendous rebuilding task under the heels of five impressive seasons by Haggerty. The Ramblers have registered 111 wins of 152 games for a lofty .730 percentage under the former coach. That put Loyola back in basketball's big league. They climbed from 71st place in 1946 to the No. 2 slot behind Kentucky in the 1949 national ratings. The Ramble skid began last season, under Haggerty, when they coped 17 victories against 13 losses.

Although the current crop is aggressive and spirited, they lack the scoring punch to take the big ones away from home. The Ramblers reached the mid-way mark with a 6-8 record. Travel weary and dog-tired after playing five road games in eight days, they started their skid after successive losses to Xavier, Day-

RULES OF THE GAME:

Spine-Cracking Sport Invades Chicago

THE Roller Derby, in all its glory and with the "amen" of psychiatrists, psychologists and millions of fans over the country, opened in the Chicago Coliseum on Tuesday, Feb. 6. The Chicago Westerners were pitted against The Jersey Jolters for the opening rounds and later meet the Brooklyn Red Devils to complete their nightly skating clashes March 3. Starting time every night is 8:30 p.m. For tickets phone WAbash 2-5862. For the convenience of TViewers or those attending the Coliseum, TV Forecast offers the following résumé and rules of the Roller Derby.

SOME DERBY BRIEFS: Races consist of two halves with four 15-minute periods each. A team consists of 10 regulars and not more than 10 subs. Boy and girl skaters wear identical numbers and colors and alternate in 15-minute racing periods . . . A jam occurs when one or more skaters break away from the rest of the field of skaters in an effort to gain a point. A buzzer signifies the start of a jam after the skaters are intact.

To score, the skater going out of the jam must encircle the track, come in behind the field of skaters and pass at least one member of the opposition. This must be done within the regulation time of two minutes. A skater cannot score unless he is at least 20 feet in front of the field.
Official rules are as follows:

SCORING—RULE I:
(a) One point, for passing one or two members of the opposing team after completing a jam by circling the track.
(b) Two points, for passing three or four members of the opposing team.
(c) Five points, for passing all five members of the opposing team.
(d) If there is one skater in the penalty box, the opposition may score one point by passing one skater, two points for passing two skaters and five points for passing four skaters. If there are two skaters in the penalty box, two points are scored for passing one skater, and five points for passing the three remaining skaters on the track.
(e) A jam skater is awarded one point if a blocker fouls him. Two points are awarded to a jam skater if he is fouled after passing two opponents. If he is fouled after passing three or four of the opposition, he receives five points.
(f) If a jam skater passes a blocker for one point, he may pass the same blocker for another point if he laps the same blocker a second time. He may win additional points in the same manner.
(g) A jam skater may pass a defensive skater who is forced off the track for a point, unless the defensive skater has been properly replaced by a team-mate.
(h) Should a defensive skater be forced into the infield while blocking a scorer, he must return to the track in front of the jammer before the turn, or he may be passed for a point. He cannot improve his position on the track.
(i) A jam skater may pass fallen skaters for points unless they are properly replaced before being passed. If officials feel a pile-up endangers other skaters, they may call off a jam.

REPLACEMENTS—RULE II:
(a) All replacements must report to the official scorer and make contact with the team-mate he replaced, unless

Derby Rules Can’t . . .
he replaces a fallen or injured teammate.
(b) If replacing an injured or fallen mate, the sub must go along-side or back of his fallen mate or he will be declared a sixth man. He cannot improve his teammate’s position on the track.
CONCLUDING A JAM—RULE III:
(a) A jam is concluded on expiration of two minute time limit.
(b) At the end of a period or the game, a final jam must be completed even if time runs out while it is in progress.
(c) Jam is concluded if lead skater falls.
(d) Jam is concluded if lead skater leaves the track with both skates.
(e) Jam is concluded on officials time out, which can be called at anytime.
(f) Jam is concluded when lead skater places both hands on his hips.

PENALTIES—RULE IV: (a) For holding, illegal blocking, and minor fouls a two minute penalty is assessed.
(b) Defensive skater intentionally fouling a jam skater to keep him from scoring is penalized three minutes.
(c) For insubordination and severe roughness—five minutes.
(d) Malicious attack on a referee or another player will result in banishment.
(e) A penalized player interfering with the field will be given an additional two minutes.
(f) Penalty will be called for six or more players in the field from one team. The two lead skaters, in scoring position, on penalized team, must leave the track with one going to the penalty box for two minutes.
(g) Any member of the opposite sex may serve out the balance of any penalty time if a skater’s penalty time overlaps into the following period.
(h) Not more than two players on any team can be in penalty box at one time. If third player is penalized and box is full, he must leave the track and be replaced by a sub. He will serve his penalty time when one of the skaters in penalty box returns to the track, and his sub must return to the bench.

BANISHMENT—RULE V: (a) Player is banished if he accumulates 12 minutes in penalties during a single game, a sub will spend the time of his last penalty in penalty box.
(b) A banished player cannot return to the track for balance of the game.

(b) Blocking with feet or tripping is illegal.
(c) The arm must be bent if used for blocking.
(d) Elbow blocks above the shoulders or upward, downward or backward movements of the elbows are illegal.
(e) Defensive players cannot lock arms to set up a double block. Both may be penalized.

GENERAL RULES — RULE VII:
(a) A skater in trouble, or fouled, or penalized, cannot be passed for a point.
(b) A substitute replacing a teammate in trouble must rejoin the field before two laps have been completed.
(c) A jamming skater forced off the track with both skates may return to his former position but may not improve on it.

FINES—RULE VIII: (a) Cash fines may be imposed by the officials.
(b) A fine of $5 to skaters still in the penalty box when a game ends.

OVERTIME—RULE IX: (a) There can be no tie games. Overtimes as follows:
Skaters will alternate in five minute periods until a point is scored. Two minute jams will be in effect.

LOYOLA RAMBLERS...

ton, Notre Dame, Baldwin-Wallace, Bowling Green, and DePaul. "That DePaul game in the Stadium could have gone either way and I feel it boosted our morale considerably," said Jordan.

The all-Chicago squad is paced by the 6'7" spindle legged Don Hanrahan, who has averaged 16.7 points per game from his center post prior to the disastrous road jaunt. Don scored only 24 points last season but cracked Jack Kerris' one game scoring record with 31 points over Ripon. In five road games, he averaged slightly over 8 points and fouled out in three contests.

The bright spots to cheer Jordan somewhat have been the play of two Tilden Tech products—Nick Kladis and Ed Maraceich. Kladis, trailing Hanrahan throughout the season in the scoring column, has climbed within three points of the elongated center at the time we went to press.

Kladis' running mate at forward is Elwood Sigwards, a 6'5" rebounding specialist from Harper. The 19 year old sophomore has consistently garnered points and frequently doubled at center when Hanrahan was pulled off the court. Bill Sullivan and Norm Buxbaum round out the Ramblers' top forwards.

Loyola's main weakness has been the lack of scoring from the guards. Capt. Dick Collins and Ed Maraceich started the season at the backcourt posts, but Maraceich's scoring faltered considerably and forced Jordan into some fancy line-up juggling. ... The Ramblers will not have easy sledding the remainder of the season. Besides CCNY, Loyola meets Western Michigan, Marquette, Beloit, Valparaiso, and DePaul. The Loyola-DePaul clash will be held on March 8 in the season's finale for both teams.

Now in its 81st year of service, Loyola is conducted by the Society of Jesus with an enrollment of more than 7,400 students on its Lake Shore, Lewis Towers, and Medical campuses. The school boasts 16,000 alumni residing in Chicago and suburbs, and 28,000 throughout the country.

DEAR BOSS:

The more I think about this cockeyed fight between Hollywood and television, the more I get steamed up about the way Chicago TV fans get the short end of the stick.

First of all, the woodenheads refuse to sell up-to-date films to frustrated sponsors here. That leaves us with no other alternative than to watch the old battered, scratchy, jumpy, shaky films.

The payoff comes, tho, when they dispatch a band of their brainless talent—and I use the word loosely—to motorize a new film opening at one of the downtown picture houses. Hollywood seems to be interested enough in TV that they authorize their freaks to appear on just about every daytime interview program.

So that I make myself clear to everyone, including my mother-in-law, I'm getting fed up at seeing some joker from California tell the same stories, the same gags, and waste valuable time. Motion picture people plugging motion pictures just aren't that interesting on TV. And more afternoon shows should get the courage to resist their appearances.

You've seen them—the Hollywood & Vine Indians on the Curbstone Cutup... prehistoric women on the Toni Gilman, and Bob & Kay show... Susan Cabot on Bob & Kay, Bill Evans, and Simon's rubble-in-the-gutter spot... I could not possibly list all the characters that have turned up, there just isn't room. It's been going on for a long time and I'm sure my irate letter will have little effect on the magnates who have the say-so.

If those moving picture folks are really dead set agin TV, then why don't they really fight? Why don't they do something to recapture their old fans who used to fill the house each weekend, even if it was to eat popcorn and hold hands. It's time for theater managers to pitch in, learn community life, become part of the city, instead of being stuffed-shirts.

Theatre of Romance
Offers New Films

Some of the newest and most expensive films are currently being telecast on WGN-TV's "Theatre of Romance," Tuesdays on channel 9. All of the 17 films have been produced in Hollywood within the last four years, and feature such stars as Edgar Bergen, Charlie McCarthy, Virginia Mayo, Robert Cummings, and Joan Leslie.

On Feb. 13, Cathy O'Donnell, June Lockhart and Mark Daniels will appear in "Bury Me Dead." The following films will appear on subsequent showings: "Love from a Stranger" with John Hodiak, Sylvia Sidney and John Howard; "The Chase" with Robert Cummings, Michele Morgan and Peter Lorre; "Out of the Blue" starring Virginia Mayo, George Brent, Turhan Bey, Ann Dvorak, and Carol Landis.

Other film titles include "The Powers Girl," "Red Stallion," "Song of the Open Road," "Repeat Performance," "Behind Locked Doors," and "In This Corner." The series is being sponsored by the William A. Lewis company.
